

I'm looking forward to participating on the training committee and hopefully will be able to create a safer work place for the corporate flight attendants and their employers.